Thursday 10th April, Thursday 17th April

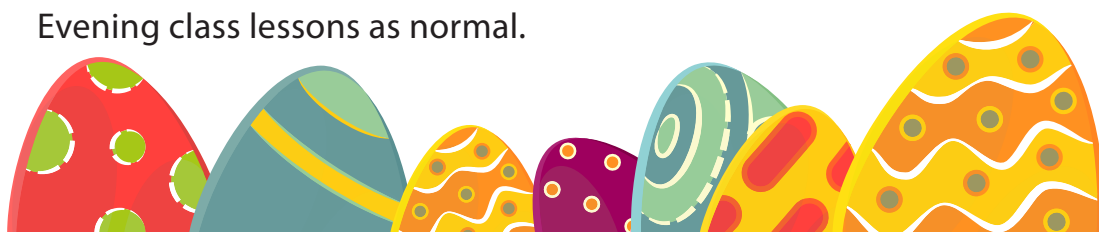

Introduction to Horse Care Full Day or Morning Session

The day is designed to build your confidence handling and working around horses. You don't need any previous experience riding or handling horses to attend – your coach will guide you every step of the way. Your coach will support you to gain the foundation skills essential for your safety around horses so you can enjoy your time spent on the yard. Minimum age 8.

You will learn about:

- Good practice when on the yard
- How to approach a horse safely
- How to put on and take off a headcollar
- How to lead a horse
- Basic welfare needs of the horse
- The saddle and bridle
- Why a horse might wear a rug
- How to groom a horse

Evening class lessons as normal.
